WOODBADGE TRAINING 2018-2019

The Woodbadge Training in Northern Ireland is delivered in a Modular format. Getting Started training is provided by your District. You should check with your District Training Manager to find out the next dates in your District. Once you have completed Getting Started, training is delivered over 5 individual days and a Residential weekend.

Many leaders may already have qualifications, experiences and skills (Prior Learning) that could mean you do not need to complete certain modules. These will be identified during your Personal Learning Plan and Training Needs Assessment meeting with your Training Advisor or Training Manager.

The following table outlines the training Modules. This training is designed to support and build on the practical work you do within your normal Scouting role.
